PIPTY YEARS OF MATRIMONY.

Golden Wedding of Hugh and Elizabe Bussell - Presentation Joyful Social Event.

On last Tugsday evening at 7:30 o'clock Mr. Hugh Russell and Mrs. Elezabeth Russell, his wite, two of Springfield's old and honored citizens, were met by more than a halt husdred of their friends and relatives at the house of their son-in-law, Wm. McCullough on College avenue, the occasion being the celebration of their golden wedding. The evening's entertainment was opened by Mr. Andrew Burnett, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Russell, who was called upon for the opening address. Mr. Burnett responded happily, stating that the guests were present to celebrate the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ressell. He said the circumstances of this celebration were peculiar. Mr. and Mrs. Russell were natives of Scotland Mr. R. was born in a small town near Educburgh, where he lived with his parents until near the age of 14, when with them, he moved to a small village on the river Cree, near the south boundary of Scotland, that being the birth-place of the lady who has been his faithful wife for fitty years. On the 7th of April, 1835, just fifty yeurs ago, they were married. They have had seven children-six of whom were present on this occasion-and all married. There had been twenty-three grandchildren, twenty one of whom were present. Such a thing i rarely known. There was one present, Mr. Burnett mid, who was present at the wedding sell, who was bridesmaid. Rev. Joseph Kyle, pastor of the church (U. P.) of which the whole family are members, fifty years ago-a younger sister of Mrs. Ruswas introduced by Mr. Burnett. Mr. Kyle then stepped forward and delivered a few very appropriate and interesting remarks before presenting the many costly gifts, which were bestowed upon the honored couple, by their friends and relatives. Mr. Russell accepted the gifts and then almost overcome with emotion, returned his thanks in the following words:

"I acknowledge the directing hand of One, who in His Providence has enabled me to see His goodness, in permitting me to behold this occasion in my married life, and I must say that I am at a loss how to express my feelings as I now behold these tokens of respect, shown to us."

At the close of Mr. Russell's remarks supper was announced, and all gathered to share the bounteous repast. The supper was abundant and thoroughly excellent, and all the guests enjoyed themselves to the utmost.

After supper the party was entertained with singing by the McCutcheon family and the rendering of several select pieces by Mr. Hugh Russell, jr., on the concertins. The remainder of the evening was spent in talking over old times and singing, in which all the twal," they bid good night and went their

RUN DOWN BY AN ENGINE.

Frank Schrimpf Instantly Killed and His Body Horribly Mangled, at Beliefon-

Relatives here received word by telephone message from Beilefontaine, about 2:30 yesterday afternoon, that Frank Schrimpf, a well known cooper whose home was on Foster street, between Main and High, had been killed by a locomotive at that place, and his son, Frank E. Schrimpf, started to bring the remains. The body arrived here at midnight in charge of undertaker Bennett, of Belletontaine, who had laid it out decentiy, although it had been shockingly mangled. From him it is learned that deceased, who has been working at his trade in Colton's shop, near the I., B. & W. depot, for some time past, was returning to the shop from dinner, having about one hundred yards to walk on the track The L. B. & W. vard engine was backing up, and striking him, knocked him down and ran over him, severing the head from the body entirely, cutting off the right arm which hung only by a shred of skin, and mashing the shoulder; also mashing the left arm diagonally across the elbow, grinding both hands to fragments and cutting several terrible gashes in the face. On arrival here the body was taken to Kershner's undertaking rooms, on Main street, and placed in a casket for burial. The deceased was upward of 67 years of age and a widower, leaving son and daughter, highly respected young people here, the son carrying on a feed and flour store on Clifton street. Mr. Schrimpt was a native of Neuhoff, in Kurpesse, Germany; and came here about 45 years ago, marrying his wife bere. He was prosperously engaged in business at Section and Foster streets for many years, and acquired some property. Business becoming unprefitable be closed his shop and worked for others. HE OKLAHOMA LEADER.

Onptain. Couch Goes to Washington to Lay Before the Secretary of the Interior Facts and Figures.-The Problem No. Nearer Solution Than Ever.

ARKANSAS CITY, April 9 .- Capt. W. L. Couch, the boomer leader, departed at three o'clock Tuesday for Washington, where he will place before the Secretary of the Interior facts and figures regarding Oklahema which it is claimed will place an entirely new light upon the movement. Senator Ingalls stated on the floor of the Senate last winter that there were no more cattle in Oklahoma than in the Garden of Eder before Adam and Eve, and very many persons believed him. Captain Couch claims to have the proofs that last winter thousands of cattle were sold in Oklahon by lessees of land in the Cherokee Strip and that this fact was known to every cattleman on the plains. The great Standard Oil Co., whose ranche is situated on land southeast of this point, has, he says, been holding be-tween 2,000 and 3,000 head of cattle in Oklahoma not far from Fort Reno, and they are there now.

General Hatch says the Government can at once settle the matter by placing the Indians in Oklahoma and letting them have the lands for farming, which the boomers are working to secure for homesteads.

General Hatch says that none of the troops now watching the colonists at this point will be moved until the matter is settled, as he has chased colonists out of Oklahoma long enough, and he believes the best way is to keep them entirely out of Indian Territory where they can be handled. The temporary garrison at Camp Russell will hold in check any attempted invasion from that locality, while the two companies of infantry at Well's store are now watching the eastern boundaries to prevent a repetition the Sac and Fox stolen march, which was accom-plished by the Coffeeville delegation. This is the situation at present, and there will be no change until Couch returns from Washington, and even then. General Hatch thinks, the problem will be no nearer a so-lution than now. The boomers will stick. however, and Tuesday morning they pas however, and Tuesday morning they passed resolutions binding themselves to remain in camp until their leader returns.

When Captain Couch succeeded Payne as leader of the Oklahoma colony, there was a vacancy in the board of directors and Colonel E. S. Wilcox has just been elected Vice President. Colonel Wilcox is well known in connection with all former attempts to reach Oklahoma, and on different operations he has been agreeted, and executed. occasions he has been arrested and escorted out of the Indian Territory. In January last he was with the Couch colony at Still water, and was brought to Arkansas City and then taken to Wichita and released or GREENVILLE, Ohio, April 9.- The mur der of George Farnsworth is still a myster; here. Farnsworth had just purchased farm in Darke County, of a man named Mills. He and two of his neighbors drove to his new home near Rossville, five mile north of Greenville, last Saturday, with household goods, leaving his family behind Goods were unloaded and the three slent in one room. Farnsworth occupied a bed alone. During Sunday Charles Wheeler discovered Farnsworth's body in the cistern. Upon in vestigation, it was found that a terrible struggle had taken place in the room when the men slept. Blood was found in the bec occupied by Farnsworth. A knife covered with blood was found in the room. The tracks of bare feet were seen on the floor Drs. W. H. Maschett and so held a post mortem examination. They discovered numerous wounds. His throat was cut, the jugular vein severed, making it impossible that the wound could have been self-inflicted, as in that case the man could not have reached the cistern. The two companions left the house early in the morning, and they are strongly suspected of being Farnsworth's murderers. It was reported here that the murdered man had considerable money with nim, but his wife says that was not the case. Officers are hard at work on the case.

Prisoners Escape Jail.

WILMINGTON, Del., April 8.—Bob Allen a notorious burglar, undergoing a ten years sentence, Harry Rawson, John Bodine, Cabet Spreyney and two other prisoners, escaped from the Kent County jail at one o'clock yesterday afternoon. The prisoners were at dinner when one of them assaulted the warden with an iron bar, knocking him senseless. They then forced off the iron doors leading into the street, and six had escaped when the Sheriff came upon the scene and prevented a complete jail delivery. Pursuit was given, but none of the

About five o'clock in the morning the effect of the anodyes seemed to be exhausted. The General awoke. He appeared to be refreshed by the sleep and was seemingly cheerful. Shortly before ex-Senator Chaffer and his son-in-law, U. S. Grant, Jr., left the house and walked down Fifth Avenue, or their way to the St. Cloud Hotel. They said that the General was resting easily, that he had passed a quiet night and that there received no cause to anticipate immediate.

Half an hour later the Rev. Dr. Newmar left the house. He said: "It is a wonder ful case. We did not believe he would be ative in the morning, but when he awoke, he was cheerful and stronger." Shortly after eight o'clock Henry, the professional nurse, came out of the house. In reply to questions, he said: "The General is doing very well now. He is composed and cheerful, and when I left him a moment ago, he was laughing and joking. He is the best patient I ever attended." Dr. Shrady was the only physician with General

HORSE THIEVES CAPTURED. Three Notorious Horse Thieves Capture

Over a Prairie.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 9 .- Tom Jones, Tom Brown and Jim Grimwald, horse thieves who have been operating in the Cherokee Strip, were captured on Monday night. Sunday night the gang stole three horses from the barn on Cummings' ranche At two o'clock in the morning Cummings was awakened by the noise made by the horses as they galloped away. He aroused the neighbors and a pursuing party was formed. The pursuers reached Pond Creek at daylight, where fresh horse tracks showed that the thiever had crossed the stream a whours in advance and were making directly for the Salt Fork River ford, twenty miles distant, where escape into unsettled country was where escape into unsettled country was assured and further pursuit would be use assured and numer pursuit would be useless. A race to this avenue of escape or capture was began, the pursued a mile in advance of the pursuers. The thieves dashed up the river bank only to be confronted by a half dozen revolvers in the hands of a party of cow-boys, who had witnessed the flight and pursuit through the distant prairie.

The thieres well de distant prairie. The thieves pulled their pistols. Mean time Cummings' party closed up, and leveling their guns at the gang, gave them two minutes to surrender. Brown, the leader, then threw down his pistol and asked for quarter. His companions also dismounted and gave up their arms and horses. The trio were bound and taken to the sheriff or Summer County, Kansas. The capture of these men is of much importance, as it breaks up a system of horse stealing which has prevailed in Southern Kansas for many insane Patient nued.
